

Rebuilding Lives at Ulpanat Dolev: A Photographic Essay

The Ulpanat Dolev campus is located in the community of Dolev in the Binyamin region of Israel. In addition to modern classroom facilities and a dormitory building (below), a new Graduates' Home (bottom right) is rising at the residential rehabilitation center for teenage girls.

Cosmetology and catering are just a few of the vocational skills taught at Ulpanat Dolev.

An art class on campus allows the students to explore their creative sides.

Girls enrolled in the school's equestrian therapy program help develop their self-confidence while engaged in animal care and riding lessons.

One-on-one sessions with the faculty is part of the Ulpanat Dolev curriculum.

From organizing a carnival for handicapped children to delivering mishloach manot packages to IDF soldiers on Purim to soldiers, the students experience the Jewish value of chesed.

Students are integrated into a nuclear family's life as part of Ulpanat Dolev's mishpachtonim program.

A spirit of togetherness and fun help make the years spent at Ulpanat Dolev a positive turning point in a young girl's life.

A ceremony and a show mark Graduation Day at Ulpanat Dolev.

